MESSAGE FROM THE CEO:

UKZN Extended Learning (UEL)

Our intention through the Management Development Programme is for delegates to have a life changing experience.

By exposing you to local and international best practice, as well as practical and relevant content and methodologies, taught by leading academics from UKZN and professionals associated with our institution, you will have a unique opportunity to hone your talents, develop critical skills and acquire the knowledge required to make a real, measurable impact in your organisation.

The development of world-class managers is imperative for organisations to be successful. This takes place against a backdrop of local and global transformation and changing markets for goods and services, rapidly evolving new technologies and increasingly challenging competitive business environments. Managers are the future business leaders of South Africa, the region and the world. They require competencies and a depth of knowledge that cannot be achieved by repeating the practices and procedures at work alone. To compete successfully and to build sustainable businesses, managers need to be challenged and taken out of a comfort zone, but with the support needed to learn to become even more effective in their roles within the organisation.

We believe that the knowledge and skills you acquire on the MDP, will assist you to build your capacity to meet the increasingly competitive demands of business in the 21st Century. The MDP is designed to ensure that your learning dovetails with your work commitments, through modules which run on a monthly basis over a period of six months. Each module is led by a hand-picked academic faculty, and addresses key business disciplines with common themes which run across all aspects of the programme. One of these themes is the development of competencies, through a Personal Development Plan, supported by a team of coaches who meet with delegates one on one to support your career plans.

We look forward to welcoming you to the programme.

MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN:

Graduate School of Business and Leadership

Globally and locally, we are witnessing a new emerging paradigm that requires a re-evaluation of leadership, management and business education, and the Management Development Programme (MDP) addresses these challenges by providing critical and deep experiential learning for managers, involving personal reflection and positive practical outcomes for those participants who engage in this programme.

We see the direct results of engagement with the MDP, being reflected to include increased ethical awareness within the context of connected systems; and professionalism of the highest calibre, reflected in the individual's continuous learning about improving character, skills, and decision-making, leading to personal mastery and the ability to work effectively in high impact teams.

We are proud of the fact that the Graduate School of Business and Leadership (GSB&L), belongs to one of the highest ranked Universities in Africa. The GSB&L is a member of the South African Business Schools Association (SABSA), and a founder member of the Association of BRICS Business Schools (ABBS).

In partnership with UKZN Extended Learning (UEL), we are contributing positively to changing the way we do things in our organisations, and are setting a potential trajectory for managers to derive immediate benefits from the programme for their work and personal lives. This will enable them to consider the possibility of returning to the GSB&L to pursue one of our many relevant tertiary education programmes in business, leadership and local economic development.

INTRODUCTION TO THE MDP

The Management Development Programme (MDP) is uniquely designed to build your capacity to lead your organisation into the future. It will challenge your views about management, expand your horizons, and enhance your understanding of the relevance and role of managers in today's organisations. The MDP will provide you with the opportunity to refocus, to immerse yourself in the latest thinking about best practice in management, and provide you with personal and professional tools to strengthen your effectiveness as a manager and leader.

The programme provides a global context for enhancing awareness and organisation wide thinking, from the challenges of leading change and transformation, to working more effectively in uncertain environments, and harnessing technology to ensure that systems and procedures are optimised.

A key feature of the programme is the Personal Development Plan (PDP) which each delegate undertakes, and which runs the length of the programme. The PDP is underpinned by a team of executive and management coaches, who work one on one with delegates to develop competencies that have been identified through 360 degree feedback from colleagues in their workplaces. This personal learning journey ensures that delegates have the opportunity to critically examine their personal leadership styles, supported by the creative development of a culture of performance and execution in the workplace.

Who should attend:

This programme is aimed at new or middle managers, who are currently managing others, have the potential to manage others, or who wish to grow and develop their management abilities.

Assessment:

The MDP is assessed through a practical project that builds on theory learned across multiple modules. The aim of the project is to find solutions to a current business challenge or to explore potential business opportunities within the work environment.

NQF Level:

The Management Development Programme is offered at NQF level 7 on the National Qualifications Framework (NQF).

UKZN Alumni:

Graduates of the MDP will be added to the database of Alumni of the University of KwaZulu-Natal. Alumni receive University newsletters as well as invitations to exclusive events, which is a wonderful networking opportunity.

Duration and Dates:

There are three intakes per year, one in February, one in July and one in October. Each block runs from Thursday through Saturday, to accommodate work constraints and requirements, and to minimise time away from work. A final day and graduation ceremony will take place on completion of the programme.

Please note that in addition to the management assignment, delegates are expected to participate in all of the block sessions in order to successfully complete the MDP.

TESTIMONIALS

“ Being part of the UKZN Extended Learning program was an amazing journey and experience for me and my team. Firstly, I enjoyed the engagement with your marketing team; the time you took to come out and visit my office; the presentation of the course; the level of preparedness and professionalism. Secondly, I appreciated the vast offering of the program, and the flexibility and ability to tailor the program down to the customer requirement without losing the depth or quality of the offering. Thirdly, the joined program attendance made up of students from various companies with different values and backgrounds, made for different thinking and robust discussions and fundamental learning. Last but not least; Hats off to the entire admin team and its executive; including the UKZN facility itself. There is something about being in an academic environment that just elevates the mood and desire for learning. It is just contagious and I would encourage more of this going forward. The icing on the cake was the graduation ceremony. The gala event and the list of speakers as well as the cuisine. Enough said. I would certainly recommend the MDP program to any emerging or well established institution that takes development of its Human capital seriously. ”

Maake Monare – Regional Manager: Customer Care Service Centre KZN, Multichoice

“ Just a small note to say ‘well done and thank you’ for everything. You have worked tirelessly on this project from beginning to end and your hard work showed itself in the excellent ceremony that we attended. ”

Sunitha Reddy – Skills Development Officer, Transnet Port Terminals

“ A huge thank you to both of you for all your efforts and planning to make the MDP course from start to Grad’s a SUCCESS. I remember the uncertainty and nervousness, I had within myself prior to the course, my adventure started on day one of the course and after last night’s Graduation, I realised that I came out of this course a better “ME”.
