

College of Law and Management Studies Teaching and Learning Day

The College Dean of Teaching and Learning, Professor Betty C Mubangizi cordially invites you to be part of the College of Law and Management Studies Teaching and Learning Day.

Come join us as we unpack the meaning and practice of curriculum decolonisation, interact and engage with enthusiastic and inspirational students and academics, as well as gain insights into the use of technology in teaching and learning. This experience will not only change the way you teach but will also enrich the experience of your students.

PRIZES
TO BE WON

Date

Thursday, 26 October 2017

Time

08h30 for 9h00 until 15h30

Venue

Graduate School of Business and Leadership Auditorium,
Westville Campus, UKZN

This event will see the participating College's academics and students deliver a 15 minute presentation highlighting their experiences in curriculum decolonisation and the use of technology in teaching and learning.

There is a chance for presenters to walk away with their share of prizes

Refreshments and Lunch will be served

RSVP at <http://clmstl.ukzn.ac.za/RSVP> by no later than 29 September 2017

INSPIRING GREATNESS