Principles and Practice of Academic Peer Review 15 September 2017 (Durban)

Seminar Overview

the concept of peer review for academic publishing and grant proposals. "What is Peer Review?", "Why Peer Review is Necessary", "How to Engage with Peer Review" and "How to write up a Peer Review Report" are some of the topics which will be covered in the workshop. The workshop will be valuable to those academics wanting to engage with questions about academic quality, accountability and impact of their research. Practical tips on the process of peer review and publishing will be provided.

Facilitated by Professor Sarojini Nadar, the seminar will be valuable to academics from a range of disciplines in the Social Sciences, Humanities and Law & Management studies.

Duration: One Day

Programme fee:

The programme fee of R2 450 (incl. VAT) covers tuition and instruction material
