

Scholarships for Postgraduate International Study 2018

The Oppenheimer Memorial Trust (OMT) awards a limited number of scholarships annually for postgraduate study at international Higher Education Institutions at Master's, Doctoral and Postdoctoral level.

South African nationals with a proven record of academic excellence who intend to pursue careers in academia, research or related fields in South Africa are eligible to apply. Exceptional candidates who propose to pursue programmes in unique or highly specialised disciplines in which advanced studies are not readily available in South Africa or who are able to demonstrate that they have advanced to a level where international tuition under the direction of global leaders in their particular discipline is appropriate to proceed meaningfully in their chosen fields, will be considered on merit. In the interests of building the local academy, preference may be given to Doctoral and Postdoctoral programmes.

Written submissions must be supported by the following information and documentation:
