

University of KwaZulu-Natal (UKZN) Research Flagship Summer School

Decolonizing Knowledge and Power: Postcolonial Studies, Decolonial Horizons

The Summer School is part of a series of lectures, seminars and workshops under the UKZN Flagship program aimed at capacity building in the areas of theory, research methodology and academic/scientific writing. Offered in collaboration with the Centre of Study and Investigation for Decolonial Dialogues (CSIDD), El Mirador de Colón on the Mediterranean Sea in Barcelona, Spain, the Decoloniaity Summer School aims at advancing the scope of the conversation on decolonization/decoloniaity in the sphere of knowledge and higher education.

21-26 January 2019
Durban, South Africa

Registration Fee: R5000 (includes materials, tea and lunches)
Payment details to follow.

10 UKZN doctoral students and 10 UKZN early career academics will be sponsored.

To apply: <https://form.myjotform.com/83102400315539>
For more information contact: Dr Saajidha Sader at saders@ukzn.ac.za

The summer school will consist of a series of lectures, panel discussions and workshops presented by key local and international scholars and activists, including:

Professor Relebohile Moletsane

John Langalibalele Dube Chair in Rural Education
Pro Vice-Chancellor: Social Cohesion

Professor Ramon Grosfoguel (CSIDD Program Director)

Professor in the Department of Ethnic Studies,
California at Berkeley

Professor Nelson Maldonado-Torres

Professor in the Department of Latino and Caribbean
Studies & Program in Comparative Literature Rutgers University.

Professor Elelwani Ramugondo

Professor in the Faculty of Health Sciences,
University of Cape Town.

Professor Sabelo Ndlovu-Gatsheni

Professor of African Political Economy, Thabo Mbeki
African Leadership Institute (TMALI), University of South Africa