

WORKSHOP OVERVIEW

The UKZN College of Humanities Curriculum Transformation Project cordially invites you to attend a series of 3 online workshops on Continuous Assessment during the month of May 2020. The purposes of the workshops are to expose staff to the possibilities for continuous assessment for informing their teaching, learning and assessment for on-line digital based engagement with students during the lockdown period and beyond.

The workshops will be hosted using Zoom. The presenters are all experienced specialists in assessment in Higher Education. There will be an opportunity to engage with the presenters through questions, discussions, and practical examples of integration of continuous assessment within modules.

PROF ANIL KANJEE (TUT)

Anil Kanjee is a Research Professor and coordinator of the Postgraduate and Research Programme, Department of Primary Education at the Tshwane University of Technology. He also heads the Assessment for Learning Research Niche Area within the Faculty of Humanities, and currently serves as a Research Fellow at the Oxford University Centre for Educational Assessment, and at the Centre for International Teacher Education (Cape Peninsular University of Technology).

ONLINE WORK SHOP: CONTINUOUS ASSESSMENT

ABOUT THE FACILITATORS

DR UPASANA SINGH (UKZN)

Upasana Singh is a senior lecturer in the Discipline of Information Systems and Technology, with a keen interest in Digital Teaching, Assessment and Learning Practices. She successfully implemented the first formative e-assessment in the School of MIG at UKZN in 2014. In 2019 she completed a 2-year training programme in the "Teaching Advancement in Universities" (TAU) Fellowship, which has inspired her to fulfil her role as a Teaching and Learning Change Agent at UKZN. Since then she has empowered over 1500 academics at UKZN, and Mauritian HEIs in the adoption of Digital Tools to support their teaching, learning and assessment practices.

MR GAVIN VAN NIEKERK, VARSITY COLLEGE, RONDEBOSCH

Gavin van Niekerk has a Master's Degree in Education and Technology (Institute of Education University of London). He has 27 years teaching experience across primary, secondary and tertiary education. Currently at Varsity College in Rondebosch, Cape Town as an Educational Technologist, he is involved in eLearning Design, eLearning Project Management and Training and Support for planning and implementation of professional development opportunities for the integrating of ICTs in learning and teaching. He previously served as a Blended Learning Coordinator in the Faculty of Education at the University of Stellenbosch. Gavin is a proficient user in Learning Management Systems like Moodle and Blackboard.

Date	TIME:	FOCUS
Thurs 14 May 2020	10.00 – 11.30	Continuous assessment – what is it and how should it be integrated into the Humanities curriculum - PROF ANIL KANJEE (TUT)
Thurs 21 May 2020	10.00 – 11.30	Using examples of continuous assessment in Moodle - DR UPASANA SINGH (UKZN)
Thurs 28 May 2020	10.00 – 11.30	Manipulating Moodle to design continuous assessment with focus on possibilities of assessment - MR GAVIN VAN NIEKERK (VC RONDEBOSCH)

Contact/Email:

Ms Ruth Danster:

dansterr@ukzn.ac.za

(Office): 031 260 2898

Prof L. Ramrathan 0826749829

Dr William Dansoh 0769012000