

Chart Your Own Path

Internship and Full-time Opportunities for Students

Amazon would like to invite students looking for internship and full-time opportunities to join one of our upcoming virtual events in January.

Employability workshop: CV & Interview Skills – 26 January

This webinar is for students who are looking to apply for graduate or internship roles at Amazon in Europe. This workshop will focus on why CVs are used, how to stand out from the crowd, hints and tips and some example CVs. We'll also then talk about common interview techniques and share some useful frameworks and example questions. The session will finish with a Q&A. Register here

Monthly Women's Event Series: How to succeed at Amazon – 28 January

What is the key to success at Amazon? This session will focus on how students can develop themselves and others, with a special focus on mentoring and how Affinity Groups at Amazon contribute to providing a support network. This webinar will be delivered by Amazonians from different parts of the business, and will be hosted in English. The session will finish with the opportunity to ask questions to our Amazon panel. This webinar is targeted at women studying undergraduate or postgraduate degrees in EMEA. Register here.

Sustainability at Amazon – 1 February

Join this session to hear from Charlie Fisher, Senior Program Manager in Amazon's Sustainability team. The session will provide an overview of Amazon's approach to Sustainability and give you an insight into the Climate Pledge. When registering for this session, please submit any questions you may have for the Q&A. Register here.

Want to know more? We'll be adding more events in the next few weeks and would encourage you to sign up. You can find these events on our global events page and filtering to Europe.

Many thanks,
Amazon Campus Attraction team

