

Invitation to Participate in an Online series
that delves into

THE IMPACT OF THE FOOD-WATER-ENERGY NEXUS ON BIODIVERSITY

In lieu of the cancelled Annual Research Symposium 2020, Fountainhill Estate, the INR, UKZN and SANBI have collaborated to present a series of presentations dealing with fundamentals related to the theme, above.

A series of four, 1-hour sessions is planned over a 6-week period:

21 Jan
2021
@15h00

A presentation on Understanding the Impacts of Land Use and Management Strategies on Biodiversity
by
Dr Morne du Plessis
CEO WWFSA

04 Feb
2021
@15h00

FOOD

Prof Tilahun Seyoum
Sustainable engineering technologies for food production – UKZN

Prof Tafadzwa Mabhaudhi
Linking water, energy,
food and biodiversity
for sustainable food production and
livelihoods – UKZN

On-line host:
Prof Albert Modi
Deputy-Vice Chancellor
– UKZN

18 Feb
2021
@15h00

WATER

Dr Phumza Ntshotsho Ecological Restoration and Ecosystem Services - CSIR

Ms Mbali Goge
Restoration Ecology
Branch - EThekweni
Municipality

Ms Futhi Vilakazi
Catchment Management
Unit – Umgeni Water

On-line host:
Dr Nontutuzelo Gola
Ecological Infrastructure Coordinator - Greater
uMngeni Catchment
– SANBI

04 Mar
2021
@15h00

Panel Discussion ENERGY

Mr Mark Gordon
previous DDG for DEA– renewable energy
specialist

Dr Suveshnee Munien
Environmental Sciences
at UKZN – household
energy poverty
specialist

Dr Richard Meisser Senior researcher and water scientist at the Council for Scientific and Industrial Research
– Water-Energy-Food
nexus specialist

On-line host:
Dr Sershen Naidoo
CEO, Institute of Natural Resources

To register,
click HERE