STUDENT WELLNESS AND ACADEMIC TRANSFORMATION

Student Support Services [SSS] in the College of Health Sciences, plays a critical role in enhancing student wellness, holistic growth and development.

Your success as a student is influenced by a variety of factors and experiences.

At SSS, the Student Wellness and Academic Transformation programme [SWAT] helps us to know our students better. By understanding your experiences, aspirations, concerns and needs we are able to offer you timeous support to thrive on your academic journey.

Caring for you as a person, means connecting every student in CHS to people and resources that deepen their sense of wellbeing and belonging.

Your Wellness ... Your Success

Coming to you soon! Look out for the invitation to participate in the SWAT Wellness Assessment!
