2. Greetings,

My name is Dr Sibongile Hlatshwayo. I am currently completing research entitled 'Students' experiences and perceived effect of the Mentoring Programme on their Academic outcomes in the School of Accounting, Economics and Finance at the University of KwaZulu-Natal'.

You are being invited to complete the accompanying google form in which we ask you to provide us with your comments and thoughts on the 2024 SAEF Mentoring Programme. All responses are completely anonymous and we would be most grateful for your feedback.

The aim and purpose of this questionnaire and research is (1) to evaluate students' experiences of the SAEF Mentoring Programme, and (2) to analyse students' perceived effect of the SAEF Mentoring Programme on their academic outcomes.

The invitation to complete this google form questionnaire is extended to all students who are enrolled in the 2024 SAEF Mentoring Programme at UKZN. The questionnaire is completely anonymous. The study is not expected to involve any risks and/or discomforts. All data collected is anonymous – No respondents can be identified.

This research aims to evaluate and analyse how the SAEF Mentoring Programme is able to assist students in overcoming obstacles to their academic success. We hope to use the recommendations arising from this research to improve practices for student support at tertiary institutions.

This study has been ethically reviewed and approved by the UKZN Humanities and Social Sciences Research Ethics Committee (approval number HSSREC/00005210/2023).

In the event of any problems/concerns/questions you may contact the researcher at sponge75@gmail.com, or the UKZN Humanities & Social Sciences Research Ethics Committee, contact details as follows:
