

Carnegie African Diaspora Fellowship Program

Now accepting Project Requests and Scholar Applications for the Carnegie African Diaspora Fellowship Program (CADFP)
DEADLINE: September 18, 2024 at 11:59 PM ET

We are pleased to announce that the Carnegie African Diaspora Fellowship Program (CADFP) is accepting Project Requests from African host universities and Scholar Applications from qualified African academics in the diaspora in the United States and Canada.

What is the CADFP?

The CADFP is a scholar exchange program for African higher education institutions to host a diaspora scholar for 14-90 days for projects in curriculum co-development, collaborative research and graduate student teaching and mentoring.

How do I apply?

The CADFP is a two-sided application: a project request submitted by the African institution and a scholar application submitted by the diaspora scholar. Links and information about the African host institution project request, scholar application, types of fellowships, review guidelines, and FAQs are posted on the program website.

Who is eligible?

- Universities in Ghana, Kenya, Nigeria, South Africa, Tanzania, Uganda, member institutions of the African Research Universities Alliance \(ARUA\) and partner universities with the Consortium for Advanced Research Training in Africa \(CARTA\) can submit a project request to host a diaspora scholar. Potential host institutions can apply with a diaspora scholar in mind or request a match from IIE.
- Diaspora scholars born in Africa, who live in the United States or Canada and work at an accredited college or university in either country, can apply online to be placed on a roster of candidates for a fellowship. Scholars must hold a terminal degree in their field and may hold any academic rank.
- The lifetime maximum for CADFP Fellowships is two (2).

Interested parties are invited to register for one of our informational webinars:

- Project Request Application Walk Through, Thursday July 18, 2024, 9:00 AM Eastern / 1:00 PM GMT / 4:00 PM EAT
- Scholar Application Walk Through, Tuesday July 23, 2024, 2:00 PM Eastern

Webinars will be recorded and posted on YouTube.
