

Looking for Research Participants

TITLE OF THE STUDY:

TRANSITIONING FROM FACE-TO-FACE TO ONLINE TEACHING DURING THE CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC: EXPERIENCES OF LECTURERS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF KWA-ZULU NATAL.

Purpose of the study:

The study aims to look into lecturers' experiences at the University of KwaZulu Natal in the sudden shift from face-to-face to online teaching due to the COVID-19 epidemic. More specially, the study seeks to understand the lecturers' description of their experiences as well as the challenges and benefits of teaching remotely during the pandemic.

Research Participant Criteria:

- UKZN Academic teaching staff (Professors, Associate Professors, Senior lecturers, Lecturers, and Senior Tutors).
- Must have experience of face-to-face teaching before the pandemic and currently experiencing online teaching.

What is required from participant:

- Participation in a 30 - 60 minute interview
- All interview will be conducted over Zoom

If interested, please email:

Researcher: Mr Vuyo Masuku - 216075621@stu.ukzn.ac.za

Research supervised by:

Supervisor: Ms Ntokozo Mntambo - mntambo@ukzn.ac.za

Co-Supervisor: Dr Ruwayda Petrus - petrus@ukzn.ac.za

This study has been ethically reviewed and approved by the UKZN Humanities and Social Sciences Research Ethics Committee.

