

The College of Law and Management Studies in partnership with the Dean: Teaching and Learning and the Teaching and Learning Unit cordially invites academic staff to an interactive, hands-on workshop to support the development of professional and authentic teaching portfolios. Through guided reflection, peer collaboration, and practical activities, participants will create a compelling narrative that showcases their academic identity, teaching context, and professional growth.

TEACHING PORTFOLIO WORKSHOP

CRAFTING YOUR TEACHING STORY-
A REFLECTIVE JOURNEY

DATES
2-3 DECEMBER 2025

09H00 -15H00
(SAST)

02 DECEMBER – G5 (WESTVILLE CAMPUS)
03 DECEMBER – SENATE CHAMBER (WESTVILLE CAMPUS)

THE WORKSHOP WILL ENABLE PARTICIPANTS TO:

- Develop a reflective teaching statement that authentically represents their values and approach
- Identify strategies for creating inclusive and contextually responsive teaching practices
- Connecting teaching approaches to relevant educational theories and research
- Apply a structured framework to complete a teaching portfolio with clarity and confidence

FOR MORE INFORMATION OR TO REGISTER, PLEASE CONTACT:

PHUMLA JEAN DLAMINI:
DlaminiP4@ukzn.ac.za

VISIT:
<http://bit.ly/49rxP7z>

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

LET YOUR TEACHING STORY SHINE AND INSPIRE OTHERS!