Reference No: RLED04/2026

The EDTEA-UKZN Champions Programme has consultant positions at the Westville campus for adjunct trainers. The champions are entrepreneurs who have a social or environmental cause and are addressing these issues in their communities. The champion training sessions are held once a month for two days duration. The remuneration fee is minimal due to the community outreach nature of the project.

Minimum Requirements:

- Experience in social economy and social entrepreneurship
- Master's degree in the respective discipline with appropriate and extensive industry experience.

The appointment of the selected candidate can only be finalized, once the following are concluded:

- Receipt of an updated CV and motivation.
- Have completed the Application for Private Work (PRW) form and have received the appropriate recommendation of your Line Manager and Dean (for UKZN permanent academic & support staff only).
